LET'S GEAX TO HAITI!

LSU in Haiti 2018

Haiti's rich culture influence on Louisiana dates back 300 years. Join Dr. Joyce Jackson and

Dr. Adelaide Russo on an expedition to explore this connection and Haitian culture. You will have the chance to live in the vibrant, artist town of Jacmel, which is a UNESCO Creative City.

Jacmel is a case study in resiliency. You will see firsthand as you explore Haitian history, connect with Haitian people, and study the island

LET'S GEAX TO ARNAUDVILLE

LSU sur les Deux Bayous in Arnaudville

The Department of French Studies invites you to participate in a linguistic and cultural immersion program in the heart of francophone Louisiana. You will discover the tiny community of Arnaudville, situated less than an hour's drive from Baton Rouge, at the confluence of Bayou Têche and Bayou Fuselier, where French and Creole are still living languages. Cathy Luquette, in cooperation with Arnaudville's NuNu Collective, will lead this unique exploration where you will meet locals who will share their language, local traditions and hospitality. Learn about this region's natural beauty, delicious cuisine, music, dancing and games, all while earning academic credit.
